This map displays the extensive road network of the Shinjuku and Shibuya districts. Key roads include the Yamanote Line (yellow), the Shinjuku Line (orange), and the Saikyo Line (green). Major roads are highlighted in yellow and orange, while smaller streets are shown in grey. The map also shows numerous train stations, including Shinjuku Station, Nishi-Shinjuku Station, and Shibuya Station. Landmarks such as the Shinjuku Gyoen National Garden and the Yamanote Line are clearly marked. The map is color-coded by ward, with Shinjuku in the center and Shibuya to the south. Major roads are shown in yellow and orange, while smaller streets are in grey. Green areas represent parks and gardens, and blue areas represent water bodies like the Sagami River. The map is highly detailed, showing individual buildings, schools, and public facilities.
